WHAT'S ON IN THE COMMUNITY

The City of Salisbury is a culturally diverse community that embraces the importance of inclusiveness, respect and belonging for everyone. Here's a quick look at how you can get involved this year through a range of different programs and events happening in Salisbury.

Adelaide Symphony Orchestra

Thursday 24 March 2023, 2pm to 3pm

Burton Community Hub, 380 Waterloo Corner Road, Burton

Join us for a delightful day out with friends and family as an ensemble of talented string players fill the air with beautiful symphonic melodies playing together in harmony as part of their free community concerts!

Bookings essential at www.salisbury.sa.gov.au/harmonyweek

'AUSSIE Posters by Peter Drew' Exhibition

Monday 27 February to Sunday 26 March 2023

Salisbury Community Hub, 34 Church Street, Salisbury

Come and see artwork by well known Adelaide based artist Peter Drew who is best recognised for his 'AUSSIE' street posters. His work is concerned with memory, nationalism, criminality, brown paper and mythology. The people depicted lived in Australia up to 100 years ago and are all connected because they had to apply for exemptions under the White Australia policy.

Nowruz Display

Sunday 19 March to Sunday 26 March 2023

Salisbury Community Hub

Come to the Hub to see what a Haft-sin table looks like and learn about the different elements. Nowruz is celebrated by more than 300 million people all around the world.

CELEBRATE SALISBURY'S RICH DIVERSITY DURING HARMONY WEEK!

Join us for an intercultural celebration of harmony and belonging within our community. Salisbury's Harmony Week major event features a vibrant intercultural parade followed by a didgeridoo playing as part of the traditional Welcome to Country. Enjoy a range of entertainment including a lion dance, live music and traditional dances from a range of cultures.

There's also a mini-market hosted by the Australian Refugee Association which includes delicious food from Latin American and Middle Eastern vendors. For those that are able to, attendees are invited to wear something orange, or a traditional cultural outfit.

Friday 24 March 2023, 9.30am to 2pm

Salisbury Civic Plaza - Inparrinthe Kumangka
34 Church Street, Salisbury
