Introduction

The City of Salisbury is committed to the principles of honest, open and accountable government and encourages community participation in the business of Council.

Sections 86(8) and 89(1) of the Local Government Act 1999 (the Act) provide that meetings of the Council or a Council Committee will be conducted according to the procedures:

- Prescribed by regulation; and
- In relation to Council meetings, insofar as the procedure is not prescribed by the regulations – as determined by the Council; and
- In relation to Committee meetings, insofar as the procedure is not prescribed by the regulations, or determined by the Council – as determined by the Committee itself.

Part 2 of the Local Government (Procedures at Meetings) Regulations 2013 specify certain procedures to be followed during the operation of Council and certain Council Committee meetings. These meetings include:

- The meetings of the Council;
- The meetings of a Council Committee performing regulatory activities; and
- The meetings of any other Council Committee to which the Council has resolved Part 2 will apply.

These Regulations provide that Council may develop and adopt a Code of Practice for its own meetings of Council and Committees that varies certain parts of these provisions.

This document is the City of Salisbury Code of Practice for Meeting Procedures.

Procedures adopted by Council that are variations of the Regulations, or concern matter on which the Act and Regulations are silent, have been inserted like this in this Code of Practice to enable them to be read in conjunction with the formal requirements of the regulations. Further, the terms 'regulation' and 'sub regulation' appearing in the Regulations have been substituted with 'clause' and 'sub clause' respectively for the purposes of this Code of Practice.

This Code of Practice will be available to the public to assist their understanding of the procedures associated with the operation of both Council and Council Committee meetings of the City of Salisbury

As required under the legislation, this Code of Practice is reviewed annually. The Council may, at any time, by resolution supported by at least two-thirds of the members of Council as a whole, alter, substitute or revoke this Code of Practice.

- (4) The Chief Executive Officer must take reasonable steps to ensure that the person or persons who requested a deputation are informed of the outcome of the request.

- (7) A council may refer the hearing of a deputation to a council committee.

12 – MOTIONS

- (1) A member may bring forward any business in the form of a written notice of motion.
- (2) The notice of motion must be given to the Chief Executive Officer at least seven (7) clear days before the date of the meeting at which the motion is to be moved.
- (3) A motion the effect of which, if carried, would be to revoke or amend a resolution passed since the last periodic election of the council must be brought by written notice of motion.
- (4) If a motion under sub-clause (3) is lost, a motion to the same effect cannot be brought
 - (a) until after the expiration of 12 months; or
 - (b) until after the next periodic election, whichever is the sooner.
- (5) Subject to the Act and these procedures, a member may also bring forward any business by way of a motion without notice.
- (6) The Presiding Member may refuse to accept a motion without notice if, after taking into account the Guiding Principles, he or she considers that the motion should be dealt with by way of a written notice of motion.
- (7) The Presiding Member may refuse to accept a motion if the subject matter is, in his or her opinion, beyond the power of the council or council committee (as the case may be).
- (8) A motion will lapse if it is not seconded at the appropriate time.
- (9) A member moving ~~or seconding~~ a motion will speak to the motion at the time of moving ~~or seconding~~ the motion.

S.(9a) A member seconding a motion may elect to either speak to the motion at the time of seconding or may reserve their right to speak to the motion until a later stage of the debate. Where a member seconds a motion and reserves their right to speak to it, they will not be considered to have spoken to the motion.

- (10) A member may only speak once to a motion except:
 - (a) to provide an explanation in regard to a material part of his or her speech, but not so as to introduce any new matter; or
 - (b) with leave of the meeting; or
 - (c) as the mover in reply; or

S.(10d) a member may, with the leave of the Presiding Member, ask a question prior to the moving of a motion or during a debate on a motion or amendment to a motion for clarification purposes only without losing their right to speak to the motion or amendment.

- (11) A member who has spoken to a motion may not at a later stage of the debate move ~~or second~~ an amendment to the motion.

(S.11a) Notwithstanding clauses 12(10) a member who has spoken to a motion at an earlier stage of the debate may, at a later stage of the debate, second an amendment to the motion, but in doing so is not automatically granted the right to speak for a further time.

- (S.11b) A member who has seconded a motion, and has reserved their right to speak to the motion at a later stage pursuant to sub-clause 12(S.9a), may not move or second an amendment to the motion.
- (S.11c) Wherever practicable, members wishing to move a motion without notice in relation to an item that is different from that recommended in the agenda for that item are encouraged to make available a written copy of their motion to assist the Presiding Member in the conduct of the meeting and the minute taker in the subsequent preparation of the minutes of the meeting.

- (12) A member who has not spoken in the debate on a question may move a formal motion.
- (13) A formal motion must be in the form of a motion set out in sub-clause (14) below (and no other formal motion to a different effect will be recognised).
- (14) If the formal motion is:
- (a) that the meeting proceeds to the next business, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is, in the case of an amendment, that the amendment lapses and the meeting proceeds with the consideration of the motion before the meeting without further reference to the amendment and, in the case of a motion, that the motion lapses and the meeting proceeds to the next item of business; or
 - (b) that the question be put, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that debate is terminated and the question put to the vote by the Presiding Member without further debate; or
 - (c) that the question lie on the table, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that the meeting immediately moves to the next item of business and the question can then only be retrieved at a later time by resolution (and, if so retrieved, debate is then resumed at the point of interruption); or
 - (d) that the question be adjourned, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that the question is disposed of for the time being but debate can be resumed at the later time (at the point of interruption); or
 - (e) that the meeting be adjourned, then the effect of the motion, if successful, is that the meeting is brought to an end immediately without the consideration of further business.
- (15) If seconded, a formal motion takes precedence and will be put by the Presiding Member without discussion unless the motion is for an adjournment (in which case discussion may occur (but only occur) on the details for resumption).
- (16) A formal motion does not constitute an amendment to a substantive motion.
- (17) If a formal motion is lost:
- (a) the meeting will be resumed at the point at which it was interrupted; and
 - (b) if the formal motion was put during debate (and not at the end of debate) on a question, then a similar formal motion (i.e., a motion to the same effect) cannot be put until at least one member has spoken on the question.
- (18) A formal motion for adjournment must include the reason for the adjournment and the details for resumption.

- (19) Any question that lies on the table as a result of a successful formal motion under sub-clause 14(c) lapses at the next general election.
- (20) The Chief Executive Officer must report on each question that lapses under sub-clause (19) to the Council at the first ordinary meeting of the Council after the general election.
- (21) Sub-clauses (9), (10) and (11) may be varied at the discretion of the council pursuant to regulation 6 of the Local Government (Procedures at Meetings) Regulations 2013.
