INTERMENT RIGHT CONDITIONS

The following points are part of the Interment Right Conditions.

1. Options for periodic payments (cash, credit card, and lay-by options) may be available for the purchase of a burial, entombment or memorial interment right. Please check with the cemetery.
2. An interment right may only be cancelled or transferred as per the cemetery's Operating Policy.
3. An interment right may be renewed, transferred, extended or cancelled upon application to the cemetery, in accordance with the cemetery's Operating Policy.
4. The rights granted to the interment right holder may be exercised upon the death or legal incapacity of the Interment Right Holder by any one of the following people in descending order of entitlement:
 - 1st. the executor or administrator of the interment right holder
 - 2nd. a joint executor or administrator (with permission from all others) of the interment right holder
 - 3rd. the legally married spouse of the interment right holder
 - 4th. the domestic partner of the interment right holder
 - 5th. the eldest living and legally capable child of the interment right holder
 - 6th. the eldest living and legally capable grandchild of the interment right holder
 - 7th. the eldest living and legally capable sibling of the interment right holder
 - 8th. the eldest living and legally capable blood relative of the interment right holder
5. An interment right may be extended by anyone anytime in accordance with the cemetery's Operating Policy or any rules the cemetery in force from time to time.
6. The interment right holder is responsible for maintaining headstones, fascia, memorial and memorial accessories in a safe and proper condition. This is not the cemetery's responsibility.
7. Under the Cemetery Regulations 2010, if it has been two years or more since the interment right for a site has expired, the cemetery may dispose of unclaimed headstones or memorials. Before disposing of a monument, the cemetery will attempt to contact the licence holder for the site.
8. At the end of the interment right period, if the interment right is not renewed or extended, the cemetery may reuse the grave or memorial site.
9. Cemeteries have specific requirements regarding the design of headstones, memorials and crypt fascia memorialisation which will require authorisation prior to installation. Some cemeteries are listed on the State Heritage Register and require headstones and monuments and alteration work to be approved by an appointed Heritage Advisor. This approval process will take time.

Please let the cemetery know if you change your address or contact details.
