SUMMARY	This report provides an update on Youth Council membership

RECOMMENDATION

1. That the resignation of youth member Julie Ping be received and noted.
2. That the appointment of new youth members Liam Bilsborow, Braden Thompson and Teya Gribble be received and noted.
3. That a change to the Terms of Reference, Membership Selection as follows:

4.9 Membership Selection

Elections will be held annually for vacant committee positions, or as required to fill a casual a vacancy that arises during a term of appointment, for the balance of the remaining term.

be endorsed.

ATTACHMENTS

This document should be read in conjunction with the following attachments:

1. Julie Ping resignation

1. CONSULTATION / COMMUNICATION

1.1 Internal

- 1.1.1 Current Youth Council members were asked to indicate their intention regarding continuing their membership in 2017.
- 1.1.2 Email received from Julie Ping – Attached

1.2 External

- 1.2.1 Youth Council membership for 2017 was advertised in local schools, in community locations, and the City of Salisbury website.
- 1.2.2 Three new applications have been received for youth membership to date; and
- 1.2.3 One new application has been received for mentor membership from Roshan Chamlagai.

2. REPORT

Resignations

2.1 Julie Ping tendered her resignation on 9 November 2016 as she has moved interstate.

End of membership term: Youth Member

2.2 Michael Santos will not be re-applying for a second term on youth council as he would like to concentrate on work and his studies.

2.3 Roshan Chamlagai will not be re-applying for a second term on youth council as he has decided to apply for a mentor position which will commence in 2017 if he is appointed.

End of membership term: Mentors

2.4 Danielle Stewart has completed her 2 year term as a mentor and has decided not to continue with Youth Council due to work and study commitments.

2.5 Kimberly Daniels, who had been sharing the mentor role representing Mission Australia with Danielle Stewart will now fulfil that role in a full time capacity.

New Members

2.6 The Terms of Reference provide that Youth Council membership consists of 18 youth members, 6 mentors and 3 Elected Members. A number of resignations from youth members throughout the year has resulted in low youth member numbers and difficulties in achieving a quorum for a meeting. Whilst ordinarily membership recruitment is conducted on an annual basis, a decision was taken to recruit new members to fill current vacancies so that a meeting of the Youth Council could be convened in December.

2.7 Following a recruitment process the new youth members are as follows:

- Liam Bilsborow;
- Braden Thompson; and
- Teya Gribble

3. TERMS OF REFERENCE

3.1 In order to facilitate the maintenance of a quorum for the term of the Committee it is proposed that the Sub-Committee consider a change of the terms of reference relating to Membership Selection.

3.2 It is proposed that the relevant section of the Terms of reference be changed to the following;

- 4.9 Membership Selection - Elections will be held annually for vacant committee positions, or as required to fill a casual a vacancy that arises during a term of appointment, for the balance of the remaining term.

3.3 This change will allow continuous replacement of Youth Council members as vacancies arise, and was a recommendation of the Youth Council Review.

4. CONCLUSION / PROPOSAL

- 4.1 Departing youth members and mentors have made a significant contribution to the Youth Council.
- 4.2 The new members are warmly welcomed.

Dear Julie and Youth Council Members,

I'm writing to let you know that I will be resigning from my position on the Salisbury Youth Council as I have moved to [REDACTED] therefore unable to finish off my 2 year term.

Thank you so much for all the training and learning opportunities and also all the new experiences that has been provided during my time with you guys. I wish I could have continued being on Youth Council and to give back to the Salisbury community.

Thank you again for a challenging experiences in the last 2 years especially getting thrown into a leadership role. I wish everyone well with new team projects and I will miss being part of such a wonderful group of young people who are passionate about giving back.

Kind Regards,

Julie Ping

SUMMARY	The following report provides an update on the Youth Council working parties assisting with the development of the Youth Action Plan

RECOMMENDATION

1. That the information be received

ATTACHMENTS

There are no attachments to this report.

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 At its February meeting, Council endorsed a youth-adult partnership model of community evaluation as the methodology to be used for the development of the new Youth Action Plan (YAP).
- 1.2 A number of working parties were formed under the banner of Diversity, Development, Active and Creative Lifestyles to facilitate information and engagement on the following areas of youth concern:
 - Diversity working parties: Lesbian, Gay, Bi-sexual, Trans, Intersex, and Questioning (LGBTIQ); and Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD), both completed June 2016;
 - Development working parties: Health; and Education and Employment, both completed September 2016; and
 - Active and Creative Lifestyles (current), due to be completed December 2016.
- 1.3 Current working party membership is as follows:
 - Active Lifestyles (formerly Sports) - Michael Santos, Cresilda Daitol, Mimona Abdalla, Nick Griguol, Taylor Sawtell, Cameron Rowe and Eric Ngirimana; and
 - Creative Lifestyles (formerly Arts) - Bianca Bilsborow, Rebecca Etienne, Joel Winder, and Mark Verdini.

1.4 The following report provides a summary update on the works undertaken by the current Active and Creative lifestyles working groups.

2. CONSULTATION / COMMUNICATION

2.1 Internal

2.1.1 Youth Council member Nick Griguol has attended four meetings of the Internal Youth action Plan Project Team to represent Youth Council.

2.2 External

2.2.1 The Active Lifestyles and Creative Lifestyles working parties have various external consultations booked in for November and December and these consultations are detailed below.

3. REPORT

3.1 This report contains a summary update from the following working parties: Active Lifestyles and Creative Lifestyles. The Current working parties will cease activities in late December.

3.2 The Creative Working Party:

- Has partnered with Every Life Matters Salisbury Suicide Prevention Network to design mugs with positive sayings on them to be given out to people at events;
- Will be running a mug making workshop at the Dec Youth Arts Christmas Market to be held in the Gallery on December 21.

3.3 The Active Lifestyles Working Party:

- Will be running youth consultation sessions with sporting clubs and recreation centres within the City of Salisbury. These sessions will include (but not be limited to) the following clubs: the Pines football club, Ingle Farm Little Athletics club, Salisbury North football Club and the Gardens Rec Centre.

4. CONCLUSION / PROPOSAL

4.1 Working Parties provide the opportunity for Youth Council members to plan, develop and implement key projects that will result in the gathering of information required for the completion of the YAP.

4.2 Working Party team leaders will be able to provide more detailed updates at the December subcommittee meeting.

SUMMARY	This report provides an update on the Youth Action Plan.

RECOMMENDATION

1. That the information be received.

ATTACHMENTS

There are no attachments to this report.

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 At its February 2016 meeting Council endorsed a youth-adult partnership model of community evaluation, as the methodology to be used for the development of the new Youth Action Plan (YAP).
- 1.2 The YAP is being developed via the Youth Council project team (which consists of Youth Council members), and a council project team (which consists of internal council staff). The internal council staff team consists of Nick Griguol who represents Youth Council on the council to assist with developing and strengthening youth-adult partnerships.
- 1.3 The YAP methodology includes a range of external consultations and responsibility for leading the various consultations is shared between Youth Council and council staff.
- 1.4 This report will provide an update of the works that have undertaken and planned activity by the project team.

2. CONSULTATION / COMMUNICATIONInternal

- 2.1 The YAP is a whole-of-council plan which supports the achievement of several key directions of the City Plan. The council project team has been established to reflect and represent the range of stakeholders in this project, including the Youth Council.

- 2.2 Since the previous status update report in August, three project team meetings and two project board meetings have been held.
- 2.3 The Community Planner, Youth has also met with:
- Manager Business Systems and Solutions regarding placement opportunities for disengaged youth
 - Community Planning Project Officer and external stakeholders relevant to Aboriginal youth development to plan culturally competent consultations
 - Manager Twelve25 Salisbury Youth Enterprise Centre and Workskil Inc. place manager to plan a consultation workshop in partnership with Workskil Transition Centre
 - The Inclusion Project Officer and external stakeholders relevant to disability sector to plan an accessible and inclusive forum for young people living with disability; and
 - City of Salisbury employees, trainees and volunteers under 25 years of age to include their voices and feedback into the Youth Action Plan.
- 2.4 Project updates have also been presented to Council's Executive Group and at the November Informal Strategy meeting.

External

- 2.5 External youth consultations conducted in partnership with Youth Council since the August Youth Council Sub Committee meeting included:
- Para Hills High School;
 - Salisbury High School;
 - Temple Christian College years 9-12 SRCs;

3. REPORT

- 3.1. Youth Council members continue to enthusiastically undertake community consultations with youth in Salisbury.
- 3.2. The second Youth Council Project Team theme of 'Development' is complete.
- 3.3. The Development working groups conducted youth consultations in the areas of Health/Wellbeing and Education/Employment.
- 3.4. The third Youth Council Project Team theme of 'Active and Creative Lifestyles is underway.
- 3.5. Internal project team consultations have generated the following key ideas:
 - Holding a Youth Arts Market in December 2016;
 - Targeting consultations in sport and recreation centres;
 - Ways to engage with Aboriginal youth; and
 - Ways to engage with young people in the 19-25 age bracket.
- 3.6. Twelve25 have conducted numerous consultations with groups attending the centre.
- 3.7. Nick Griguol will continue to represent Youth Council on the council project team.
- 3.8. The Community Planner Youth and Nick Griguol presented a project update to the Executive Group on September 20.
- 3.9. Pizza and Pathways was held on September 23 at Twelve25. The purpose was to consult with young people not engaged in education, employment and training (NEET).
- 3.10. A forum for young people living with a disability was held on October 14 in the John Harvey Gallery in partnership with key external stakeholders, NDIS northern office, and Purple Orange, Julia Farr's youth participation team.
- 3.11. The Community Planner Youth attended a workshop with Elected Members at the Informal Strategy meeting on November 7.
- 3.12. At the time of writing this report, 1263 young people have now been directly consulted.
- 3.13. Upcoming consultations are booked for the Salvation Army youth group (The Rev); and numerous sporting clubs and recreation centres.
- 3.14. The YAP is due to be completed by April 2017.

4. CONCLUSION / PROPOSAL

- 4.1. The development of the new YAP is currently on track to be completed on time, and within budget.
- 4.2. The target consultation number is 1,500 and the work to date is well ahead of this target.
- 4.3. A further update will be provided at the next Youth Council Sub Committee meeting in February 2017.

SUMMARY	Twelve25 and Youth Council to work together to implement activities in Salisbury for National Youth Week 2017

RECOMMENDATION

1. A working party of Youth Council members, staff and youth volunteers be formed to plan and implement activities for National Youth Week 2017.
2. That Twelve25 (as per previous years) coordinate a council application for funding support from Office for Youth in order to work collaboratively with Youth Council to supplement the small amount of council funds budgeted to support Youth Week.

ATTACHMENTS

There are no attachments to this report.

1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 National Youth week is celebrated across Australia as a unique opportunity for the community to recognize and celebrate the contribution of young people. It provides an opportunity for local youth to influence, plan and develop a significant community event. This contributes to our young people's wellbeing in our community.
- 1.2 National Youth Week 2016 was celebrated from 8 April to 17 April.
- 1.3 In 2016 Twelve25 and Youth Council hosted a major event being the Northern Youth Arts Market at the John Harvey Gallery in collaboration with the City of Tea Tree Gully.
- 1.4 Other activities included: An art exhibition in the John Harvey Gallery and The Mawson Centre, Movie Night, Comic Labs with Georgina Chadderton at the Len Beadell Library, Youth Arts Enterprise Bootcamp in Tea Tree Gully.
- 1.5 These activities were funded through the support of Office for Youth, City of Salisbury and City of Tea Tree Gully.

2. REPORT

- 2.1 National Youth Week 2017 will run from 31 March to 9 April.
 - 2.1.1 The theme for National Youth Week 2017 is youTHRIVE focusing on the importance of young South Australian's physical, mental, emotional and social wellbeing.
 - 2.1.2 A SWOT (Strength, Weakness, Opportunities and Threats) analysis of the Northern Youth Arts Markets was hosted identifying that stall holders were pleased with the event, majority of the stallholders sold products, there were 21 stall holders and a variety of other activities that added to the event and an opportunity for next Youth Week to switch roles and host the market in Tea Tree Gully and the enterprise bootcamp in Salisbury.

3. CONCLUSION / PROPOSAL

- 3.1 Youth Council members to brainstorm ideas for activities/events to host in National Youth Week.
 - 3.1.1 Youth Council and Twelve25 to work together to implement activities for a Salisbury Youth Week.
 - 3.1.2 A working party to be formed to progress with the ideas to plan an event in National Youth Week 2017.
 - 3.1.3 That Twelve25 (as per previous years) coordinate an application for funding support from Office for Youth in order to work collaboratively with Youth Council to supplement the small amount of council funds budgeted to support Youth Week.
